

Tired of your everyday life? Is the Political Climate getting to be too much? Is your stress starting to get out of control? Whatever shall we do for dinner is a daily occurrence? Well - have we got a remedy for you!

Please join the Friends of the Dearborn Symphony for a relaxing, fun-filled afternoon as we board the SS Chicken of the Seas for an afternoon of escape. Coming Aboard will offer you many opportunities. Word is that there may be some “shady” goings on with some of the Crew and we may have the chance to be part of saving the Cruise.

Additionally, when Booking the Cruise, we have discovered that there will be an Octoberfest Dinner, of which the Captain has informed us that we will be at the First Seating. So, practice those “sea legs” and sign up for your afternoon cruise and interactive fun.
